United States District Court

Re: United States v. Shlomo Patchiav
Criminal Docket No. 23-99 (DLI)

Dear Judge Irizarry:

The parties jointly and respectfully submit this letter, pursuant to the Court's September 8, 2023 order, to provide a status report in the above-captioned case. As set forth below, the parties respectfully request that the Court set a date for a status conference in approximately 30 days, and exclude time until that date.

As the Court is aware, on March 6, 2023, a grand jury sitting in the Eastern District of New York returned an indictment charging the defendant with extortion conspiracy, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1951(a). Since then, the government has made substantial productions of discovery to the defendant, including on July 17, 2023, August 29, 2023 and September 26, 2023. The government will continue to produce any additional discovery to the defendant on a rolling basis, and work with defense counsel to answer any questions concerning the discovery produced to date.

The parties have conferred in advance of this report and, at present, the defendant's review of the discovery is ongoing. Accordingly, the parties jointly and respectfully request that the Court adjourn the upcoming September 13, 2023 status conference, set a new date for a status conference in approximately 30 days, and exclude time under the Speedy Trial Act until that date. The parties respectfully submit that an exclusion of time from the Speedy Trial clock is in the interests of justice, as it will afford the defendant an opportunity to review discovery in order to evaluate possible pretrial motions and facilitate the parties' discussion of a potential resolution of this matter. See 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7).

Respectfully submitted,

BREON PEACE
United States Attorney
